CONVENTION.

Election, August 5th, 1875.

FOR DELEGATES:

EDGEcombe COUNTY.
FREDERICK PHILLIPS,
H. C. BOURNE.

NASH COUNTY.
BENJAMIN H. BUNN.

PITT COUNTY.
THOMAS J. JARVIS,
WM. M. KING.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.
JAMES E. SHEPHERD.

Where the Work is Needed.

The Raleigh News in a well considered editorial says it is not worth while to exhaust effort in counties where the issue is certain. Radical counties, controlled by large negro majorities, are not going to be changed by the most convincing argument, though one rose from the dead. Democratic counties like Catawba, are not going to be shaken in their faith, though no voice at the head.

But effort is needed in the doubtful counties, and most of them lie west of Raleigh. The best talent of the State should be directed to their preservation. Those counties want stirring up. They must be shown the dangers of apathy. And they must be roused to sympathy with other parts of the State which are helpless under Radical rule and the fruits of the existing Constitution. No more noble duty lies upon the West than the redemption of their suffering brethren of the East. And the orators of the East could not more usefully apply their time and their talents than going into the West, to demonstrate by their own experience the evils of which the West is to some extent happily unconscious.

Mainly and Clark for instance might leave Craven in a darkness which they cannot enlighten, but they might go into the West and confirm the faith of Randolph and Davidson and others that tremble in the balance. Howard might leave Edgecombe to be battled for by some of the gallant young champions of the cause, and go to the West where his experience could be usefully applied. Barnes cannot impress Northampton, nor Conneland Halifax, nor Davis New Hanover, but they might go into the mountains and raise such a storm of enthusiasm as would roll down one of those political avalanches which used in anti-bellum days always to accompany the political tempests of that region.

Unjust.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina is evidently partisan—Petersburg Index Appeal. Several of our State papers owing we suppose to their warm zeal in the Convention cause have indirectly endorsed what we believe to be a slander. To accuse the highest court in the State of being governed in its decisions solely by partisan considerations is indeed a grave charge and should never be made unless with positive reasons. The Court's decision in the Wilmington charter case prompted, if we are not mistaken, this remark from the Index Appeal. It is a question with men of both parties whether the principle underlying the Act of the Legislature in amending the charter was not a wrong one and when there exists so much doubt as in this case, we are inclined to think a constitutional decision adverse to the wishes of the Democratic party in sufficient to call forth the charge of having been influenced solely by party. It is true all the justices are in accord with radicalism but we hope there is left honor enough among them to adjudicate matters according to their best judgement of what the law is.

Why is it?

Radicals concede that the Constitution should be changed. Why is it then such a decided party issue made of it? Because they think it an opportune time to retrieve their fallen fortunes. Think of it! Willing to prostitute such a sacred thing as a Constitutional Convention to place the party upon its feet again. But that's Radicalism over and over again and thoroughly in keeping with the monster.

The Negro.

The Petersburg News after reviewing speeches made by Fred. Douglass and others comes to the conclusion we have held for some time that the reign of the carpet-bagger in the South is well nigh over. We publish elsewhere its article.

If colored men everywhere would take Frederick Douglass's advice to heart and ask only to be left alone much would be accomplished toward solving the future of the race. The negro has been helped too much not only by those who made use of him for their own ends, but by people who did what they did in all kindness. He has learned too little self-reliance, and fallen too much into the habit of thinking that the world owes him a living. He starts out under a free sky, as no newly enfranchised race ever started before. Education is to be had for the asking, and labor in the South seeks for laborers; both political parties are ambitious to secure his support; he encounters nothing but good will on every hand. Let him now "cut loose"—above all, from the carpet-baggers. It is time he stood alone, and began to learn that God helps those who help themselves.

Down with Rodman!

Judge Wm. B. Rodman, the moving spirit in the convention of 1868 that gave us the miserable constitution under which we have groaned since that time has announced himself an independent candidate for delegate the September convention. The people trusted him once and were foully deceived. Does he think a child that has been burned still loves the fire? Under the leadership of the gallant Shepherd, the conservative masses of old Beaufort will rise up in their greatness and in August will bury him in a political grave from which he will never resurrect—a fate most richly deserved.

Voters, Read.

This from the Louisburg Courier is bound to command attention: "It is a fact that in every county in the State, where the Conservative party has been in power, the counties are out of debt, and their paper is riddled with face value, and a number of them have from ten to twenty thousand dollars in bank. And in every county where the Radical party has been in power, the county scrip has been at a discount, and nearly every county has asked for a special tax, to feed the corrupt officials who hold the offices. These are facts."

Now, we ask, does this array of startling facts not speak as with the voice of the trumpet against the Radical party. The Radicals oppose Convention, which would remedy these grave wrongs.

Negroes may do as they please, but white men in Pitt will vote for Jarvis and King.

Let the West Awake.

Will the West allow the East to beat it on the popular vote for Convention? If not, then her people must awake. We will poll our full white strength man to man—Tarboro' Southerner.

We trust our friend Williamson is correct about the "full white strength." The white men who have seen so much of Radical corruption and negro civil rights, are expected to turn away from that party, and this may account for Oliver Dockery, and other Radical speakers, changing base and coming West in search of new converts. Let no man be deceived. Let the West stand by her colors and do her whole duty—Piedmont Press.

Work! Work!

The radicals are earnestly at it, with money, with circulars, with speakers. Let the Democrats be up and doing. There is no time to lose. If they have no money, they have the time and they have the talent. In every county there are enough young men who can do important in rousing up the people. Information is wanted and interest must be aroused. With the radicals, it is a struggle more for the revival of their party rather than the defeat of Convention. Let the people remember that as down goes Convention, up goes radicalism, and then for the days of 1868 again—Raleigh News.

Negroes may do as they please, but white men in Nash will vote for B. H. Bunn.

As there is a general curiosity to know the amount of fees paid to the lawyers in the Beecher-Tilton case, we give them as we find them set down in a northern exchange, viz: Mr. Evans received $25,000; Mr. Tracy, $10,000; Mr. Hill, $5,000; Mr. Beach, $5,000; Mr. Fullerton, $2,500; and Mr. Pryor, $2,500. Mr. Shearman refused to accept money for his services.

Republican means safety to the nation and true prosperity to its citizens. Democracy means the reverse. Who can hesitate in what direction their personal influence should be cast?—Elizabeth City North Carolinian.

"Safety to the nation" has been well demonstrated in the wonderful exhibition in Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas, where the life of civil law was stamped out by the military heel. Prosperity to the citizen is well illustrated by the universal scarcity of money, the total prostration of business, the gloom that overhangs every prospect. Yes, these are all the points of Republicanism of which the North Carolinian boasts. "Who can hesitate in which direction their personal influence should be cast?"—Raleigh News.

Revolutionists.

Judge Pearson—good authority among the Radicals—pronounces the programme of the Radical leaders to defeat the Convention call, revolutionists. Pearson seems to have a pretty accurate idea of the Radical leaders in this State and ain't slow in expressing his opinion sometimes.

When we hear Radicals promising, if elected, no interference with the Constitution as it stands, but an immediate adjournment, we are forcibly reminded of the tale of George Washington's little hatchet and the cherry tree. Scat!

The radicals pretend to be in favor of an immediate adjournment of the Convention. They want a majority of the delegates in order to gerrymander the state so that the Senate may be secured for their party.

Dr. Grissom's quarters should be enlarged. We are told some men have faith in the radical bugbear of immediate adjournment.

Negroes may do as they please but white men in Beaufort will vote for Jas. E. Shepherd.

We heartily endorse the following from the Wilmington Star. Let the friends of good government throughout the State buckle on their armor in earnest and go to work with that determination which will know no defeat. Says the Star:

The real heavy work ought to be done in the counties where the voting is usually close, and those where there is a large fluctuating vote. For instance, canvassers ought to speak in every community in Chatham, Johnson, Wayne, Brunswick and Robeson. We name these among quite a number. We presume Wake, Guilford and Randolph will be thoroughly canvassed. With such able speakers as Leach and Robb, Davidson should not suffer. What is done must be done quickly. Time passes. The election occurs in twenty-six days.

And we might add Pitt Beaufort and Martin counties.

What is up now?—What Does He Mean.

Mr. S. V. White, in seconding the motion to raise Mr. Beecher's salary to $100,000, is reported by the Tribune to have said:

"When Henry Ward Beecher was attacked, your wife and mine and every member of Plymouth church was assailed."

Is it not strange that, exceptional as the Plymouth church people seem to be in character, any man should volunteer to drag his own wife into such a scandal as this? Nobody would probably ever have heard of Mr. White's wife in connection with the matter, but for his own introduction of her.

And then, he says addressing an audience of more than forty husbands, "your wife and mine." What does he mean?—N. Y. Sun.

We reckon he means about what the world thinks, that Beecher's church members are no better than he and Mrs. Tilton have been shown to be, and that hush money should be liberally subscribed to white-wash the rotten sepulchre.

Negroes may do as they please, but white men in Edgecombe will vote for Phillips and Bourne.

Gen. Frank P. Blair, who died in St. Louis on Thursday, was in public life the greater part of twenty-three years, having been a member of Congress for two terms, a general in the army during the war, collector of the port of St. Louis, again a member of the State Legislature, a United States Senator from 1861 to 1863, and insurance commissioner of Missouri at the time of his death; besides being once a candidate for vice-presidency.

The question is no longer Convention or No Convention, but simply whether the Convention shall be controlled by the extravagant Civil Rights party, or the Conservative party of the State. Goldboro' Messenger. Mighty rich neighbor cuss. Now let us roll on the ball to that tune.

Gov. Vance declines being a candidate for the convention.

EDITORIAL SQUIDS.

Miss Fisher's "Question of Honor" is completed and will be published by the Appletons.

Long Branch is now familiarly spoken of as the Summer Capital of the United States.

"Citizen" writes to the New York Tribune from that city, warmly presenting the name of Hon. Reverdy Johnson for President.

Ex-Gov. B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri, will stump Ohio for the Democracy.

"There! that explains where my clothes-lines went to!" exclaimed an Iowa woman, as she found her husband hanging in the stable.

The telegraph says Robert Dale Owen the celebrated Spiritualist, has gone crazy. Why, he's been that way all the time.

Touch of another torpedo! The Fourth of July oration, at Duluth Flat, California, was delivered by a lady.

Princess Beatrice, daughter of Mrs. V. Guelph, of England, expects to marry an American young man, whom she loves. Such is the story.

"An English editor calls a certain kind of American religion 'pewism.' We should hiss it out with a sibilant prefix.

It took a Brooklyn City Court from the 4th of January to the 24th of June to find out whether Beecher didn't—and they don't know yet.

A southern Ohio county court recently discharged a man who was on trial for killing his wife's seducer the court holding that it was justifiable homicide.

General Butler indorses the inflation platform of the Ohio democracy! It looks like a bad sign for the party when such recruits gather to its fold.

The Pittsburgh Gazette says: "We hear nothing more of Caesarism." What has become of it? Why, it is just cooling off a little at Long Branch, replies the Courier-Journal.

A woman fainted during the delivery of Mr. Stephens' Fourth of July oration in Atlanta. She seems to have been the only person in the audience with any sensibility.

Don't notice the garbled extracts of Radical newspapers. In every instance they are misconstrued, or originated in their own wicked brain.

Remember what the Radical Executive Committee say in their secret address: "Republicans should not intimate that the Civil Rights Bill is wrong in principle."

An underground railway has been opened at Constantinople. It communicates with different sections of the city, and trains are run every five minutes.

It has been decided in a French court that the landlord who fails to have his guests duly awakened to catch the trains they wish to take is liable for damages.

Fifty thousand dollars saved per annum in the single item of patching mail bags is itself enough to entitle post-master general Jewell to public gratitude.

The New Albany Ledger-Standard announces that the Hon. M. C. Kerr is not a candidate for the Presidency or Vice Presidency. But he says nothing about the Speakership.

Charles Nordhoff, whose Republican proclivities cannot be doubted, hits the nail on the head when he terms the Washington Republican, Grant's kitchen organ, the National Idiot.

The total number of Post Offices in the entire Russian Empire, both in Europe and Asia, is 3,200. In London alone there are 530, and in England and Wales there are 6,280.

A proposition has been made to the executive of Virginia to sanction the removal of the sarcophagus containing what is supposed to be the remains of George Washington to the centennial exhibition.

The Goldboro' Messenger says Congressman Hyman is making a sweep of Anti-Civil Rights Republicans holding office in his district. We learn that through his influence Mr. Stanley has been removed from the Kinston Post office.

Several Presidential candidates have come to grief recently. They should follow the example of the pious negro preacher, and "low humbly to do dispensations of a wise but unscrupulous Providence." The darkey's phraseology doubtless best interprets their feelings.

"We can detect the old rebel yell," says the Buffalo Express, in the applause that cheers on the Democratic cause in Ohio. Then, why the devil don't you throw down your gun and take to your heels as you always used to do?—Courier-Journal.

The Paris Figaro asserts that there are many American women in that city living freely in the mud and mire of the demi-monde, and acting as spies for Germany. They are said to extract information from the official French gentry who are drawn into the circle of their fascinations.

At the business meeting of Plymouth Church July 7th Mr. Beecher's congregation gave another and most convincing proof of their faith in their pastor. By a unanimous vote, and with immense applause his salary for the current year was fixed at the unprecedented sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

Fred. Douglass thinks that no member of the republican party can save the negro in 1876 but Ulysses S. Grant. This shows what we have maintained for some time, that Grant can carry in national the convention the whole 138 southern electoral vote, which may most probably give him the nomination.

No man who calls himself a Conservative, and no man who has heretofore voted with the Radicals but at the last election voted to squelch the abominable civil rights principle and those who advocated it can hesitate how he will cast his suffrages at the approaching election.—Star.

They pick up horse thieves out West and summarily hang them. But if a negro ravishes a white woman here in the South and the indignant populace lays violent hands upon him it is forth with heralded abroad as an evidence of Southern lawlessness.

If Gov. Allen is elected by a good majority the example of Ohio will tell with fine effect in all the other States, and the National Democratic-Conservative Convention will catch the cue for the Presidential campaign, and unfurl the broad banner of the party of the people with "more money and a cheaper currency" brightly emblazoned upon it.—Richmond Whig.

We have passed through a terrible ordeal; but useless repining and querulous expressions of discontent poured forth upon all occasions will not lighten the world's opinion of that boasted chivalry and manhood which we would have it believed is characteristic of the Southern people.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Col. H. C. Derrick, of Halifax county, Va., a prominent officer in the engineer service on the Southern side in the late war between the States, has received from the Khedive of Egypt, on the recommendation of General W. T. Sherman, an appointment of Lieutenant-colonel in the engineer service of the Egyptian army. He will sail on the 15th.

Queen Victoria is past fifty-six, and is now getting on to sixty, and for her years she is still a young looking woman. Her eldest grandchild, the son of the Crown Prince of Germany, is now sixteen; and it is quite possible, considering the age at which Royal Princes are married, that she may be a great-grand-mother before she is sixty, and may live to see her great-grandchildren.

Somebody has been gathering the statistics, and has ascertained that the American people spend annually $3,700,000 for spirituous drinks, not including wine. Two hundred and fifteen million of dollars of this sum is paid to the three thousand distilleries in this country, and the twenty-five hundred American breweries manufacture two million barrels of beers, which cost the consumers $142,000,000.

Prince Louis Napoleon dined with the officers of the Royal Artillery at Aldershot, a few days ago, for the first time since his appointment to the regiment. In replying to the toast of his health, coupled with that of the Empress, proposed by Col. J. Turner, the Prince said he was very proud of having the honor to wear the uniform of a British soldier, more especially that of the Royal Artillery. He was also proud of the historical fact that British soldiers fought at the side of French soldiers in well-contested engagements.

Birth of a Grandson to the President.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 11.—Mrs. Algernon Sartoris, daughter of President Grant, gave birth at 8.15 this morning to a fine boy, weighing ten and one-half pounds. The happy household immediately telegraphed the news to the President, who at present at Cape May. He immediately sent congratulations and a father's blessing by telegraph. Many friends arrived during the day to congratulate the happy mother, but by special instructions from her physicians none were permitted to see her excepting near and dear relations. This evening the mother and son were doing well.

This is barding on all the powers of Royalty. A third term will make it complete.

Work for Convention. Herein fail not.

Disgraceful Some.

[Raleigh Sentinel of Friday.] The scenes enacted in Judge Watts' court yesterday and to-day are without precedent. The grand jury were attempting to indict the Judge for bribe-taking. A witness, Mr. E. G. Haywood, refused to be sworn and Judge Watts appealed to the bar to know if he should compel the witness to be sworn. Some of the bar said yea, and others said nay. The majority, however, said yea, but the court said nay, and ruled that the court had no authority to compel Mr. Haywood to answer, but it being a special case aimed at him he would request Mr. Haywood to be sworn. Mr. Haywood declined, but subsequently was sworn, and went before the Grand Jury. Soon the Grand Jury returned and asked emphatically if he had jurisdiction of the case. The Judge declined to give an opinion, but referred them to Col. Haywood.

Remember '68. Think of the Holden-Kirk war.

THE ATLANTIC HOTEL, Beaufort, N. C.

A SEASIDE RESORT.

The above establishment, so favorably introduced by the owner to the public last Summer, has been the private residence of the undersigned since that time, and by special contract will continue through the Season of 1875.

Thankful for their very liberal patronage, he invites the guests of the Atlantic Hotel last year to return, and will also entertain applications for Board and Lodging from other parties when satisfied that their presence would not prove a nuisance to himself or visitors.

This Hotel is beautifully situated immediately over the waters of the harbor, with a fine view of Fort Macon, Old Topsail Inlet, and the Atlantic Ocean. The Tide flows semi-daily under the building, thereby producing Cleanliness and Coolness, while Flies and Mosquitoes are almost unknown. This is the ONLY HOTEL so FAVORABLY situated.

On the Atlantic Coast.

The building is so constructed as to render it peculiarly desirable to those seeking HEALTH AND PLEASURE! The rooms are commodious and accessible to the sea breeze, with piazzas on the front, and delightful Plank Walks, free from sand and dust, for the enjoyment of pedestrians.

BATHING HOUSES: neatly fitted out on an improved plan, are attached to the Hotel, where guests can enjoy the refreshing sea-bath.

THE SURF is one of the most attractive features of this justly celebrated Summer resort, and former patrons will recognize a decided improvement in the commodious dressing rooms, conveniently located upon the beach.

THE BALL ROOM

Has been constructed over the water, on the Sea-Front of the Hotel, having a suspension roof 50x75 feet over it, 40 feet high, and a splendid view of the Ball Room is had from the Piazza or Galleries.

An expert corps of Musicians will be in readiness during the season to give zest and pleasure to the fleeting hours. A first-class BAR, BILLIARD ROOMS, BOWLING ALLEYS, and a SHOOTING GALLERY, is attached to the Hotel. YACHTS and ROW BOATS for hunting and Fishing Parties, Fast Sailing and Well Managed, can be had at any time to convey persons to such points as is desired. A CROQUET GROUND AND FLYING TERRACE has been for the use of the guests of the Hotel, where all who delight in these HEALTHY and BEAUTIFUL games may do so.

THE TABLE

Will be supplied with every article to be found at the first-class Hotels of the interior, besides, Oysters, Escallops, Soft Crabs, Sea Turtle, Terrapins, Lobsters, and every variety of Fish abundant in the prolific waters of the Harbor and Ocean. An abundant supply of ICE has been provided, which will be furnished our Guests, FREE OF CHARGE. The subscriber having had much experience in the Hotel keeping, and aided by competent and courteous assistants, flatters himself that, by strict attention to business, and with a corps of well trained and obliging servants at his command, he will be able to give entire satisfaction to all who may patronize him.
